Change in Census Tract Average Household Income, 1970-2005
Vancouver Region

Source: Statistics Canada, Census Profile Series, 1971 and 2006

Notes:
(1) Census Tract boundaries are for 1971. Analysis excludes those that were created after 1971 and those that have no income available for the year 1970 or 2005.
(2) Average household income is based on persons 15 and over in private households and includes income from all sources.

Change in Census Tract Average Household Income as a percentage of the Vancouver Census Metropolitan Area Average, 1970-2005

City #1: Income Increase of 15% to 343%
(33% of the region's census tracts)

City #2: Income Increase or Decrease is Less than 15%
(46% of the region's census tracts)

City #3-L: Income Decrease of 15% to 48% and are low/very low income in 2005
(10% of the region's census tracts)

City #3-MH: Income Decrease of 15% to 79%
and are middle/high/very high income in 2005
(12% of the region's census tracts)

No Income Data for 1970 or 2005
Rapid transit as of 2009

Source: www.NeighbourhoodChange.ca